Officers to use video as court evidence HI-TECH POLICE A 'WORLD FIRST'

• Hampshire Constabulary Police Constable Olivia Peachey wearing a body worn camera

BASINGSTOKE'S police force is to become the first in the world to kit out all its officers with mini surveillance cameras to use as evidence of crime in court.

Hampshire Constabulary's Chief Constable Andy Marsh revealed all its 2,800 frontline police officers will be fitted with body worn cameras on their uniforms within a year.

Chief Constable Marsh said the £700,000 move would modernise the 'ancient' justice system.

He added: "Being an ancient system, it doesn't take into account things such as digitalisation and the modern society - I do think the criminal justice system needs to be modernised."

"At the moment you explain that you are a victim of crime to an officer or a member of staff and they write it down and the words and the telling are put into a format which actually doesn't always truly reflect the horror of what it is to be victim of crime, especially in your own home."

They would become the only police force in the world for all its officers to have body worn cameras.

Director of civil liberties pressure group Big Brother Watch, Emma Carr, warned: "If the police want to gain public support for use of this technology, then the right to film must work both ways."

But added: "There is potential for this to improve accountability of the police."

Body Worn Video (BWV) was first used by Hampshire Constabulary in 2008, and about 500 officers have them.

The remaining frontline officers are to get them in the next six to 12 months.

They are hoped to be particularly effective in domestic abuse cases.

In December, body worn video footage captured by Hampshire Constabulary officers featured on a BBC Panorama programme and showed domestic abuse survivor Gale Marmoy after having been attacked by her husband at home.

She explains seeing her own injuries on the video persuaded her to speak out - and husband Michael John Gregory, 77, was convicted last May at Portsmouth Crown Court and sentenced to 10 years in jail.

Head of Basingstoke-based domestic abuse charity Taking Steps, Gerrie Jordan, said: "They are a godsend to us."

"When the evidence is there by these videos, there is no escaping - the camera doesn't lie."

"When you actively see and experience it, it is like experiencing it with them."

"The camera would pick up on the emotions and the behaviour of the perpetrator as well as any children if present at the property."

Football stadium plans put on hold

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

PLANS to build a new £10million football stadium in Eastrop have hit delays of at least six months.

Eastrop councillors claimed in November a Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council public consultation on the plans for a 5,124-seater stadium in Old Common Road were illegal because it did not give residents more than one choice on where to build it.

The council - which owns the land - confirmed on Friday the plans are on hold after seeking advice from lawyers.

Over the next six months the council will be considering its options.

Project lead councillor John Izett said: "We need to ensure that we take the right decision about council-owned land for the people of the borough."

He added: "Basingstoke Town Football Club, which is privately owned, has a long-held desire for a new stadium and as a council we have tried to support its ambitions to maintain the borough's reputation for sports facilities."

"Finding a location on coun-

• An artist's impression of how a new stadium could look cil-owned land that the club can afford for a new stadium, which would be built at their own expense without public funding, is by no means simple."

Eastrop councillors Stuart Parker and Gavin James both raised concerns the six-week consultation in August and October was not lawful.

Cllr Parker said: "The council must also give equal consideration to the recreational benefits and positive contribution to the residents wellbeing gained from the existence of green open spaces, as it does to commercial interests."

Last year a Supreme Court Judgement ruled a public consultation was unsound in Harin-gey, London, because it did not give alternative choices.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council spokesman Sara Shepherd said: "While this consultation was underway, a Supreme Court test case ruling on a consultation by a London council meant that a decision taken on the borough's consultation could be vulnerable to legal challenge, as other sites considered had not been included. The consultation has not been held by any court to be 'unlawful'."

Basingstoke Heritage Society, which presented a petition of 500-signatures to Cllr Parker in October, said it is "very pleased to note the council's decision to delay any final decision for six months, which the ward councillors have achieved by challenging the consultation."

It added: "This threat has not gone away and we will continue to campaign on this issue."

Two girls sexually assaulted in South Ham

POLICE patrols have been stepped up in South Ham after two teenage girls were sexually assaulted.

A man, described as about 5ft 9ins tall and in his 60s, assaulted the girls between 8.30pm and 10.30pm on February 6 in the Paddock Road area.

Police launched an appeal on Friday to find the attacker.

They also want to track down a man walking two or three white dogs who spoke to the girls after the incident.

Detective Constable Ed Tyrie said: "I understand that there will be some concern within the local community about what has happened and that it is only now that we have provided details about this incident.

"Please be assured that since it was reported to us, we have been conducting significant enquiries in the area and have extra officers out on patrol.

"Key to this investigation is tracing the man walking his dogs that the two girls spoke to after the incident. We would urge this man to get in touch as soon as possible.

"If you can help, please get in touch."

Anyone with any information is asked to contact police on 101 and quote Operation Camino.

On January 24, an HGV collided with a Vauxhall Zafira northbound near the Tufton crossroads at about 5.45pm.

The front seat passenger of the Vauxhall, a 53-year-old man, died at the scene.

4th in England

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: The council's food safety inspections were rated one of the country's best by a leading consumer choice charity.

The borough came fourth out of 398 councils when Which? ranked them for enforcement of food legislation.

Councils have to make sure food businesses comply with hygiene and standards rules.

A total of 96 per cent of 1,375 restaurants, cafes and takeaways in the borough conform with food safety regulations.

Council leader Clive Sanders said: "Eating out shouldn't be a lottery for our residents, who have the right to expect high standards of the borough's restaurants, cafes and takeaways. This high national ranking shows just how seriously we take keeping the people of the borough safe in every way."

Old Basing quizmasters take on TV's Eggheads

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

RIVALRY between a team of Basingstoke quiz fanatics versus BBC quiz show stars the Eggheads is to be aired on TV.

The Old Basing team of five, formed at Bartons Mill pub by manager Ray Turnbull, were filmed last month for the BBC2 show battling it out against the Eggheads.

The Eggheads are a team of five formidable general knowledge experts, including big money winners from other quiz shows.

The winner is still a secret until the show is aired, but Mr Turnbull said: "My team did very well. I am very proud."

"I could not have asked for anything better."

"We went through a two-month period of phone interviews beforehand where we were asked general knowledge questions just to make sure we weren't complete idiots."

Mr Turnbull, Kate Donohoe, Kelvin Gautier, Glen Marsh, and Paul Tottman were then flown to the BBC's Glasgow base for the filming on January 18.

The show, which covers a range of topics from food and drink to science, sport and history, is presented by Dermot Murnaghan of Sky News and BBC journalist

Jeremy Vine.

Mr Turnbull added: "We were nervous but it was exciting."

"It was out of our comfort zone being in the TV environment -

BBC Glasgow is massive."

"But the other Eggheads were delightful and Jeremy Vine was tremendous - he sent a selfie

The show is earmarked for broadcast in the next three to six months.

But a specific date has not yet been set.

Police chief in bid to change law

• From front page

She added: "Much more is said in body language than in the spoken word."

Currently the videos cannot be used in all criminal cases as evidence in court.

But Mr Marsh said that he has been pressing the Home Office so that it can be used as chief evidence - especially when interviewing suspects.

Hampshire Constabulary's project lead for body worn video, Inspector Steve Goodier, said: "I believe some changes to legislation could make a significant difference towards a faster, fairer criminal justice system."

"The Police and Criminal Evidence (PACE) Act was written in 1984 at a time when body worn video was not available to policing."

"Under PACE, an interview given by a suspect outside of a police station voluntarily must be recorded by a police officer in a written format and then signed by the interviewee as a true and accurate record."

"We want to explore lawful ways to test and evaluate how body worn video could capture these interviews with suspects outside of police custody. If we can do this, it has the potential to free up police time."

Simon Hayes, Hampshire's Police and Crime Commissioner, said: "I think it will speed up the criminal justice system, which is good for the victims and also there is evidence to show that there is an increased number of guilty pleas."

The new measures were announced at a public meeting between Mr Hayes and Chief Constable Marsh at Basingstoke Discovery Centre last Thursday.

Boy may be youngest in UK battling testicular cancer

Flipping marvellous

OVER 200 people gathered at Alton's Public Gardens yesterday for the town's annual pancake race.

About 27 children on half-term break got stuck in with frying pans and running shoes with 11 adults, and Mayor of Alton Graham Hill.

Mayor Hill said: "What a great day we had at the pancake race today."

"The weather was perfect, the children really enjoyed it, there was a lot of fancy dress and I loved taking part."

But Basingstoke resident and artist, 30-year-old Lydia Fee (below) claimed victory and stepped into the spotlight.

A NINE-year-old boy fighting testicular cancer could be the youngest in the UK diagnosed with the disease.

But it's a battle brave Jack Bristow, from Popley, is strong enough to win.

Parents Joanne and Daniel Bristow got the news no mum or dad wants to hear in December.

After suffering a kick to the groin playing football at school, Jack was rushed to Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital where he was taken for an operation.

Mrs Bristow, 29, said: "When he came back down from theatre doctors said they found something they had never seen before."

"As you can imagine, we weren't expecting it."

Jack, a Merton Junior School pupil, was then taken to Southampton General Hospital where he was diagnosed with a testicular cancer germ cell tumour called Seminomas.

Mr Bristow, a 32-year-old plumber, added: "Having gone through this, it is still so hard to describe how I feel."

"It is completely gut-wrenching."

But having had a testicle removed on January 2 and been through a tough bout of chemotherapy, Jack has a 95 per cent

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

chance of making a full recovery.

Mrs Bristow added: "He is already back to his jumping self."

When Jack started to lose his hair he decided to have it shaved off instead at Popley barber Ragos, in Shakespeare Road.

He was joined on Friday by three Popley teenagers from Everest Community Academy showing their support.

And far from feeling sorry for himself, Jack is instead urging people to shave or dye their hair purple this Friday to raise money for Piam Brown children's cancer ward where he is being treated in Southampton.

Since launching a charity Just Giving page online two weeks ago, Mr and Mrs Bristow, Jack, and seven-year-old brother Alfie, have raised more than £1,700.

Jack said: "It's so cool - absolutely brilliant."

He is urging more people to join in by shaving or dyeing their hair to help pay for toys, equipment, treatments, and day trips for children on the ward.

Mrs Bristow said: "We have got an overwhelming response in Popley. People who don't know him want to support him.

• Parents Joanne and Daniel with Jack, nine, and Alfie, seven. Parents Joanne and Daniel with Jack, nine, and Alfie, seven. Parents Joanne and Daniel with Jack, nine, and Alfie, seven.

"I walk to the local shops and get stopped three or four times. Everyone knows him now, he's like a celebrity."

Ward councillor Jane Frankum said: "I think this basically underlines what I have always said about community in Popley.

"It is a good, caring and loving community with a heart as big as a house."

'Action vital' to tackle train overcrowding

BASINGSTOKE MP Maria Miller has called for action to deal with overcrowding on the town's trains.

According to Network Rail's Wessex Route Plan - a blueprint on how the train network in the south will cope with increased capacity - Basingstoke needs a 40 per cent increase by 2043.

Last week Mrs Miller met with Basingstoke council leader Clive Sanders, Hampshire county councillor for Basingstoke Stephen Reid and deputy council leader, Ranil Jayawardena, to discuss options.

She said: "Trains to and from Basingstoke have become seriously overcrowded at peak times and standing room only is often the norm between Basingstoke and Waterloo."

"Passengers need action now to introduce more, longer trains around peak times, evening and weekend, as well as long term solutions like double decker trains."

A consultation on the Wessex Route Plan ends today.

In November the Observer reported Mrs Miller called for two level trains.

Cllr Jayawardena said: "Railways are important to the economic prosperity of North East Hampshire."

He added: "That's why I'm campaigning for quicker, longer, better trains to London, to Basingstoke and beyond."

Manydown: 600 more amid affordable homes protest

• Campaigners on the Manydown land

AN extra 600 houses are to be built on top of 3,400 already planned on land at Manydown, town leaders decided on Friday.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's Manydown committee upped the number of homes to be built on the council-owned land to 4,000 on Friday.

The increase comes after a government planning inspector ruled the council had to find land for an extra 1,800 homes across Basingstoke and Deane.

Manydown, a 2,000-acre development, is part of the borough council's local plan - a blueprint of housebuilding until 2029.

At the meeting on Friday, February 13, the portfolio holder for the project, Councillor John

By Mathew Di Salvo

Izett, said: "I'm very conscious about the concerns residents may have about the impact of additional housing, particularly on the roads and therefore any decision to increase the amount of housing on these parts of Manydown are going to be very much dependent on the outcomes of technical studies that are going to be undertaken."

The council also stated they would not commit to building 40 per cent of the housing as affordable homes.

The decision sparked a protest on Sunday of about 30 residents and Labour party members at Manydown land.

Daniel O'Loughlin, 28, of Popley, said: "I've been trying to buy a property for five years in Basingstoke and I'm a college lecturer - I earn good money."

"What kills me is that even with a good paying job, it is still hard to get a house."

While Brookvale resident, Martin Heath, 57, said: "I have children and grandchildren and they need somewhere to live."

"We are facing a housing crisis in Basingstoke - it's a young town, a growing town and we just haven't got the houses for it."

And Shibaji Shrestha, 46, of Brighton Hill, said: "We want houses for everyone."

"So many people are homeless because of the house prices."

Labour's parliamentary candidate for Basingstoke, Paul Harvey, said: "This isn't about a private company making a profit it is about a council who owns a piece of land that they could build affordable housing on and everything else for the benefit of local people to make it an amazing development."

Cllr Izett said: "Any reasonable person would agree a project of this scale, complexity, duration, effort and importance to the borough and its resident's housing needs should wait until the necessary financial appraisals, further technical studies on infrastructure and work on how the development can be delivered are completed."

Published on February 11, it also states physical violence and abuse are a factor in 20 per cent of relationships.

Mr Hayes said: "I am keen to introduce more opportunities for educating the young people across Hampshire and the Isle of Wight. This is why, through my commissioning programme, I have provided funding to organisations such as the North East Hants Domestic Abuse Forum."

AA is likely to cut 300 jobs

BASINGSTOKE-BASED car company the Automobile Association announced they could be axing around 300 jobs last week.

The AA, headquartered in Farum House, Basing View, confirmed they are in talks with staff over job cuts.

It was revealed that jobs would be lost in Newcastle, where their call centre activity is focused, as well as in Basingstoke.

Most of the job losses would come from back office roles.

Bob Mackenzie, executive chairman of the AA, said: "It is our intention to continue to serve the needs of the motorist as comprehensively as possible."

The company revealed the job cuts are 'likely' but have not been finalised.

They have been reviewing the business since last summer.

President of the AA Edmund King revealed about 80 to 90 jobs from Basingstoke's headquarters, where 964 staff are employed, might be lost.

Tens of millions of pounds saved is to be invested in IT including upgrading the AA app.

Mr King went on to describe the changes as "exciting stuff".

He added: "Currently, one can report a breakdown via the app

– we know exactly where you are, what car you have and what resource to send to you.

"The customer can then track their patrol's progress.

"This app will be further developed into a digital handbook for all your motoring needs."

About 50 new jobs are also to be created and more roadside personnel hired.

The AA employs 8,022 people.

Paul Maloney, the regional secretary for GMB – the general trade union – said: "This is yet more bad news from the AA."

He added: "Waiting times for customers are now around two hours up from half an hour before the sale to private equity in 2005.

"If you have to wait for recovery you could be at the side of the road now for up to four hours.

"The purchase of the AA by private equity back in 2005 has turned out to be a smash and grab robbery of a great British company.

"Having taken over the company the private equity owners proceeded to sink it in to debt and stuck the blood out of it."

Boris Johnson's deputy retires to focus on election fight

A CANDIDATE vying to become MP for North West Hampshire announced last week he has stepped down as deputy to Mayor of London Boris Johnson to focus on his election campaign.

Kit Malthouse retired as deputy mayor for business and enterprise.

The Conservative will be standing against Labour's Andrew Adams, Liberal Democrat Alex Payton and Ukip candidate Diane James on May 7.

Mr Malthouse said: "As I pledged when I was selected as the Conservative candidate for North West Hampshire, this week I tendered my resignation as deputy mayor for business and enterprise to Boris Johnson.

"After seven years as part of his leadership team, the time has come for me to concentrate all my efforts on my candidacy in the general election."

Sir George Young, the current Conservative MP for North West Hampshire, has been in the position since the 1997 elections.

He announced last year he will be retiring in May from his seat.

Crazy Nuts car to raise hundreds for hospice

A CARTOON-LOVING couple are auctioning off a wacky car which powered them from Basingstoke to Monte Carlo in a bid to raise money for a children's hospice.

Sonia Ransom, of Farnborough, and Keith Travers, of Winkleberry, Basingstoke, drove the 1,018 miles to Monaco over three days in July last year.

They raised just over £1,000 for Naomi House and Jackspace

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

hospice in Sutton Scotney.

And to add to the donation the couple are auctioning the car on eBay until Saturday.

"It is an awesome little car," said Mr Travers, 40.

"We just want someone who will take it on more adventures."

• (Left to right) Sonia Ransom and Keith Travers in Turin, Italy on the way to Monte Carlo

"We don't want it sold off to a scrap yard - it is a fun car."

Mr Travers - who has raised money for the charity through runs and raffles before - added: "It is where you would want your child to go if they were ill."

The 1991 K-reg automatic Toyota Corolla is covered in characters from Scooby-Doo and Wacky Races television series.

Both shows were aired in 1960s and 1970s and are cartoon fans' favourites.

As part of the Monte Carlo or Bust Adventure, the couple dressed up as six characters from the series, including Dick Dastardly and Daphne from Scooby-Doo, and called themselves Team Crazy Nuts.

Ms Ransom, 35, said: "It would be a shame for it to sit here and do nothing."

Participants in the event have to buy a car for a maximum of £300 and drive to Monte Carlo to raise money for a chosen charity, completing challenges along the way.

The car's eBay page states: "Living peacefully for most of her life in Basingstoke, she was a reliable and faithful car to her owner for many years."

The 10 bids have already reached £299. Go to ebay.co.uk to follow the auction.

Councillor's Corner

Cllr Gavin James

Liberal Democrat Councillor for Eastrop

Show your council you're boss

CONSERVATIVES need reminding who is really the boss.

The council needs you. Obviously your taxes are what makes the council function, but the only reason we have a council at all is because you're here.

Enter the council, watch a cabinet meeting, listen to the Tories and you get a very different impression.

From those early days when I was first elected, I took the naïve view that I was joining a group of 60 councillors passionate about Basingstoke and Deane and the people in it.

We may have different political views, but the same aims. I was wrong.

For a small number the council is a stepping-stone to a career in politics.

They hope to avoid anything controversial in a bid to establish a positive profile.

They're only really interested in themselves and whilst that means they are fairly pointless as a councillor, they're generally harmless.

It is those Tories in the cabinet.

"We can't do this, our partners won't like it", "business won't like it", "county council won't like it". Never "having listened to the public we are going to change..."

If I had to write a slogan that summed up the council cabinet it would be:

"Tories - putting people last."

Many councillors haven't forgotten we were elected to do things for you, but too many give the impression they've been elected to do things to you.

When you see them out campaigning, remind them you're the boss and in May you can show it.

Protecting all green open spaces 'poses legal problems'

LEADERS on Basingstoke council's cabinet were last night deciding on a change of wording in council policy that would protect all green council-owned land from development.

The cabinet were expected to throwback the proposal as the Observer went to press.

The amendment to the council's green open spaces policy would mean all 60 green spaces - including parks and playing fields - would be safeguarded from development.

Currently only 52 are protected by the policy because of the wording - excluding part of War Memorial Park and land in

By Mathew Di Salvo

mathew@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Old Common Road, Eastrop.

The Observer reported in December a decision had been delayed to seek legal advice.

A council report compiled for the meeting last night said: "Having obtained legal advice in this matter, it is evident that there are legal implications if cabinet were to approve the amendment as proposed."

The report states the decision could be 'subject to legal challenge' but does not explain how.

Cllr Gavin James said: "From what I can see the paper has come back the same way it has gone in."

"I will be turning up at cabinet and I will be very critical."

"I will be speaking at cabinet to see all green open space should be protected."

"I don't want any exemptions. War Memorial Park was a historic gift to the council."

The policy currently reads: "Green spaces would not be afforded protection where an earlier council decision has already been made to either develop a site or investigate the potential of a site, or where a previous decision has been taken that access across a site may be required in the future."

But campaigners wanted it changed to: "Green spaces would even be afforded protection..."

For an update on the result of the meeting, visit the Observer's website at basingstokeobserver.co.uk or see next week's Basingstoke Observer.

'Urban parishes' may be created in town

TOWN leaders are considering creating 'urban parishes' in Basingstoke.

Parishes - the lowest level of local government - are usually set up for rural villages to represent the local community.

Villages around Basingstoke including Overton, Kingsclere, Oakley and Deane, and Dummer have their own parish councils that work alongside Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council.

All the areas in Basingstoke are covered directly by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council.

But after a successful 'urban parish'-type pilot set up in 2013 between South Ham and Buckskin, the council is looking to create another in Popley.

Council leader Clive Sanders said: "It is a bit of a daft situation where for a large part of the borough, you have parish councils who carry out a very useful function in dealing with all sorts of issues locally but then you come into the town and there is nobody dealing with those issues."

He added: "It has had a positive benefit."

"What is clear is that it is still early days. We are still a long way away from creating an urban parish with a similar type of regime but the signs are promising."

Duties of parish councils include allotments, burial grounds, bus shelters.

And they have the power to make bye-laws concerning issues such as swimming pools, cycle parks and planning.

The cabinet was set to approve the scheme for Popley at a meeting last night as the Observer went to print.

TRILBYS

BARBER SHOPS & HAIRDRESSERS

We are a one of the most popular barbershops/hairdressers in Basingstoke and north Hampshire, with over 1,500 clients per week.

We have 25 stylists/barbers and are professional, precise offering precision with value and good customer service in a friendly, not pretentious atmosphere.

At Trilbys, we are justifiably proud of our fantastic team of hairdressers and barbers at both of our town centre salons, and of our enviable reputation for unpretentious first class hairdressing for gents, ladies and children at great prices.

This year, we won an award for the most loved business in Basingstoke. Trilbys was established in 1991 by husband and wife team, Andrew and Gerry and have become Basingstoke's leading barbershop.

Due to high demand, Trilbys also entered into the ladies hairdressing market within a very short space of time.

For the busy gent there is no need to make an appointment, just walk in. However, appointments are available from Monday to Friday for clients who express this preference.

There is rarely more than 10 minutes wait and we have a range of up-to-date magazines for your perusal.

We provide the full service, including cut throat shaves, and also stock an extensive range of men only products.

Younger clients are always welcome and are kept entertained with our playstation and colouring books.

First haircuts are celebrated with a complimentary "First Hair-cut Certificate" and a lock of hair for mums and dads to cherish. Children are rewarded with a Good Boy/Girl sticker.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called “boxes”, “blocks”, “regions”, or “sub-squares”) contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Advanced Digital Imaging

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

- Are you over 40?
- Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
- Are you short sighted?
- Do you have diabetes?
- Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes.

Your eyes deserve the benefits of cutting edge technology available at this practice.

Thinking outside the box

HUSBAND and wife folk duo Megson are bringing traditional folk tunes to The Forge Theatre this Saturday, February 21.

Stu and Debbie Hanna, from County Durham and Middlesbrough respectively, are embarking on their 'In a Box' UK Tour from Havant up to Gateshead.

"We first met singing in a youth choir on Teesside when we were 16, and I think that is where the love for harmonies comes from," Stu told the Observer.

"I then went off to play in a punk band and Debs went to music college - quite different musical paths! But we got together after that and started Megson."

Formed back in 2004 and named after Debbie's family dog that had just died, the couple had originally called themselves 'The Ghost Before Meg', before friends and family convinced the two they sounded more like a death-metal band.

As Megson the pair exploded onto the folk scene and have since released seven studio albums, including their latest release 'In a Box'.

They have also been nominated for 'Best Duo' at the annual BBC Radio 2

By James Richings

Folk Awards three times.

"We often like to have some kind of theme for our albums as it helps us to focus on writing and collecting material," Debbie said.

"We came up with the theme 'The Passing of Time' and got together a collection of songs that range from childhood, love, marriage and old age.

"These culminate in the title track 'In A Box', which is about all of the junk we collect over a lifetime and the memories they hold.

"We're so lucky to have received amazing support from our fans and it's fantastic to get such good reviews in the press for doing something we love."

She continued: "It's also slightly surreal to think so many people know who we are, especially when we spend the majority of our time being parents to our little girl and doing all the day to day things - we are very lucky."

Tickets cost from £13 to £15.

The gig starts at 7.45pm at the theatre in Churchill Way.

Steeleye Span in town

ONE of the longest running bands of all time is heading to Basingstoke this evening.

Steeleye Span will be lighting up The Haymarket as part of their 2015 European tour.

First formed in 1967 by bass player Ashley Hutchings, original band members included Tim Hart on guitar and vocals, Maddy Prior on vocals, Terry Woods on guitar, concertina and vocals with his wife Gay Woods on strings and vocals.

They became a household name during the 1970s with their traditional folk-rock sound, which helped the band achieve seven albums breaking into the UK Top 50 Album Charts.

However, after a lean period in the late '70s which saw the popular group split up, the band soon reunited and have since been a dominant force in the folk industry.

They are now considered to be one of the best-known acts as part of the British folk revival.

Guitarist Julian Littman told the Observer: "I have performed at The Haymarket before, but as an actor in the musical called 'Pump Boys and Dinettes' back in 1999, so I'm looking forward to be coming back."

By James Richings

jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Since their formation 48 years ago, Steeleye Span have had a total of 21 musicians with Julian joining the well-known group in 2010.

"Prior to joining the group, I worked as an actor in theatre, movies and in TV, whilst musically I've worked with Gerry Rafferty, Dexy's Midnight Runners, Charlie Dore and countless others, so I'm very privileged to be part of Steeleye," Julian said.

"It's also a pleasure to work with Maddy Prior. She always enables and prepares to push the boundaries."

At the Wote Street venue, the group will perform songs off their latest album 'Wintersmith', which includes three tracks written by Julian.

They will also perform some of their well-known hits, such as 'All Around My Hat', which peaked at number five in the UK charts in 1975.

Tickets for the show cost £22.50, and the gig starts at 7.30pm.

New drug drive legislation in place

A NEW law will be introduced to England and Wales on Monday, March 2 to crack down on motorists who are on medication when driving.

The new regulation is designed to catch drivers who risk lives by getting behind the wheel after taking illegal drugs, and not those taking legitimate medicines that don't impair their ability to drive.

Road safety campaign, 'THINK!' is encouraging people who take medicines and aren't sure if they are safe to drive to check with their pharmacist or doctor.

"If you are taking your medicine as directed and your driving is not impaired, then you are not breaking the law and there is no need to worry," Road Safety Minister Robert Goodwill said.

"We advise anyone who is unsure about the effects of their medication or how the new legislation may affect them to seek the advice of their doctor or pharmacist."

By James Richings

The new law sets limits at very low levels for eight drugs, which are Cloan-zepam, Diazepam, Flunitrazepam, Lorazepam, Oxazepam, Temazepam, Methadone and Morphine.

However, the limits that have been set for these drugs exceed normal prescribed doses.

This means that the vast majority of people can drive as they normally would, as long as they are taking their medicine in accordance with the advice of a healthcare professional and/or as printed in the accompanying leaflet, and if their driving is not impaired.

There will also be a medical defence if a driver has been taking medication as directed and is found to be over the limit, but not impaired.

"THINK!" also advises drivers who are taking prescribed medication at high doses to carry evidence with them, such as prescriptions slips.

This is to minimise any inconvenience should they be asked to take a test by the police.

"Don't stop taking your medicines, prescribed or otherwise, if you are worried about this new law," Professor David Taylor, Royal Pharmaceutical Society spokesman and member of the Department for Transport advisory panel on drug driving said.

"Instead, talk to your doctor or pharmacist for information about how your medicines might affect your ability to drive. They'll be happy to give you the advice you need to stay safe."

• The law will be introduced on March 2

Driver and Vehicle

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.

That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Bison sting Bees and then become Phantoms' menace

BASINGSTOKE Bison continued their push for second place in the English Ice Hockey Premier League as they picked up wins against Bracknell Bees and Peterborough Phantoms over the weekend.

The Herd enjoyed a comfortable 5-1 win on home ice over the Bees on Saturday, before beating the Phantoms 5-2 the following evening on the road.

It was a tough start to Saturday's match for Bison, as they lost Aaron Connolly through injury in the opening minute of the game.

Despite the setback Joe Rand grabbed the host's first goal during the opening period.

Bison then got going in the second period as they fired four strikes past the Bees with doubles from Joe Greener and Miroslav Vantroba.

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

They were denied the shut-out as Ivan Antonov got a shot through in the final period, but Bison held on to take the two points.

Sunday's tie away to the Phantoms saw a competitive first period, although it was the home side who ended the opening 20 minutes on top.

Marc Levers gave the Phantoms the lead, and while Tomas Karpov would equalise on the powerplay, Edgars Bebris re-established their lead just over a minute later.

But for the second game in succession Bison put in a stunning second period display.

Once again Greener and Vantroba were on the scoresheet, with Ciaran Long also contributing a goal to put the Herd 4-2 up going into the final third of the game.

And Karpov completed Bison's weekend with his second goal of the match, resulting in a final outcome of 5-2.

The results elevate Bison to third in the league standings with 48 points, three behind second-placed Guildford Flames, although the Surrey side have played one game less.

It is Flames that Bison take on in their next game tomorrow evening, before hosting Sheffield Steeldogs in their only match of the weekend on Saturday.

Sport Bites

Next fixture

RUGBY: Basingstoke RFC return to action on Saturday when they take on Charlton Park at home, after having had a break last weekend.

It's been a difficult campaign for 'Stoke in the London 1 South, with them currently sitting second bottom of the league with 22 points.

They haven't won since a 16-15 victory over Cobham on January 3, and have conceded 57 points or more in their last three matches.

Thumping win

FOOTBALL: It was an impressive day at the office for Basingstoke Town Ladies, as they thrashed Newbury Ladies 9-0 in the Southern Region Women's Football League on Sunday.

Charlie Fry, Samantha Mosley and Lindsey Beverley all scored twice, while Lianne Hill, Tracy Jones and Justine Mosley added one each.

Basingstoke are fourth in the standings with 16 points, and face third-placed Oxford City Ladies in their next league match this Sunday.

Hockey draw

HOCKEY: Basingstoke Hockey Club picked up another point in the South Hockey League Hampshire/Surrey Regional 1 division with a 2-2 draw with Woking on Saturday.

Ben Jubin and Dean Record were on the scoresheet for Basingstoke, although Woking's Ben Littlejohn and Andy Pike ensured it would only be a share of the spoils.

Basingstoke are fourth in the standings, although they and Fareham, Bournemouth and Wanderers all sit on 25 points.

They return to action against Southampton this Saturday.

Collard confirmed for 2015 BTCC season

HOOK-BASED racing driver Rob Collard will remain with West Surrey Racing for the 2015 British Touring Car Championship season, the team confirmed on Friday.

Collard has been with the Surrey-based squad for the past five years, and joins Sam Tordoff and Andy Priaulx in the team for the upcoming season.

He finished sixth in the drivers' championship in 2014, picking up a race win and six other podiums as he contributed to the team's manufacturers' title success.

"I am delighted to be racing for WSR for the sixth consecutive season," said Collard.

"We have had some great memories together and I believe there are many more to come.

"I am looking forward to getting back behind the wheel during testing over the coming week as we prepare to defend our titles in 2015."

Dick Bennetts, WSR team principal, added: "Rob has been a mainstay of WSR for a number of years and we're extremely pleased to have him signed up for another season.

"Rob's speed and experience are there for all to see and he will, as ever, play a key role in helping WSR challenge for more titles."

The season begins on April 5.

Wintney defeated by Bedfont

HARTLEY Wintney lost their second game in succession as they were beaten 3-2 at home to Bedfont Sports on Saturday.

It comes after their previous 5-1 defeat to Ashford Town, although they had been unbeaten in the Combined Counties Premier league since the end of December before that.

The result keeps them seventh in the league standings with 43 points from 28 games, five points behind next-placed Spelthorne Sports.

Elsewhere, Whitechurch United's Wessex Premier League fixture with Lymington Town on Saturday had to be postponed.

However the Jam Boys did manage to advance to the next round of the North Hampshire Senior Cup last Tuesday night beating Overton United 4-1.

And Tadley Calvea held on to the top spot of the Wessex First Division after drawing 1-1 with Downton.

They have a two point lead over Team Solent in the table, although their Southampton rivals were in action last night against Hythe and Dibden as the Observer went to press.

It comes after Calvea were knocked out of the senior cup following a heavy 5-1 defeat at home to Winchester City.

All three teams are returning to league action on Saturday, as Wintney travel to Epsom and Ewell, Whitechurch visit Andover Town, while Calvea make the short trip to face Andover New Street.

MOORE EARNS TOWN SHARE OF THE SPOILS

Dragons stopper stars in 1-1 draw as Basingstoke keep pressure on promotion rivals

GOALKEEPER Stuart Moore made a string of fine saves to earn promotion-chasing Basingstoke Town a point at St Albans City on Saturday.

Town stretched their unbeaten league run to three games as a result but were indebted to Moore who pulled off save after save in a one-sided first half.

Jason Bristow's side remain fourth in the Vanarama Conference South and six points behind leaders Boreham Wood.

As the Observer went to print, Town were in action against 17th-placed Maidenhead United.

On Saturday, St Albans got off to a bright start with Rob Dickie blocking a Sam Corcoran effort and Moore brilliantly tipping Jamal Lowe's shot around the post.

The host's dominance was rewarded on 13 minutes when Corcoran opened the scoring.

David Ray gave away the ball on the halfway line and John Frendo broke clear before squaring to Corcoran who was denied by Moore but converted at the second time of asking.

And St Albans could have been out of sight a few minutes later with James Harper clearing off the line and Moore keeping out Steve Wales' acrobatic effort.

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

It was backs against the wall stuff for Town as Moore denied James Kaloczi, Corcoran and Frendo before half-time.

Despite St Albans' dominance before the break, Town equalised with their first effort on target.

On 51 minutes Nathan Smart broke down the right and Manny Williams was on hand to turn home his cross at the back post.

And Bristow's side could have taken the lead minutes later as Smart once again caused problems down the right but Chris Flood headed over the bar.

Moore was soon called into action again to keep out an effort from Lowe but it was Town who were creating the better chances with Tom Bird and Liam Enver-Marum going close.

As the match drew to a close St Albans keeper Joe Welch did well to save a Shaun McAuley freekick but both sides were forced to settle for a point.

Town are in action on Saturday, with Bishop's Stortford visiting the Soccer AM Stadium.
